A blurred photograph of a living room interior. In the center, there is a dark-colored sofa with several white cylindrical pillows. To the right, there are two armchairs, one light blue and one light green, also with white cylindrical pillows. The room has a warm, glowing atmosphere from recessed ceiling lights.

Potrebbe essere a New York, Londra o Parigi perchè ciò che conta nell'abitazione, è che sia un rifugio dove lasciare correre libera l'immaginazione.

A partire da una certa età, per amor proprio e per furberia, le cose che desideriamo di più sono quelle a cui fingiamo di non tenere.

Quel che rende interessante
o significativa un'opera d'arte è qualcosa di ben diverso dall'espressione di sé.
